Your Harp Dreams Come True

Join the International Harp Therapy Program

Study music development to enter the IHTP program with Christina Tourin's online Coaching Prep Program.

You will learn how to improvise 🌟 Play by ear 🌟 Develop therapeutic repertoire

Learn modulations for addressing the resonance of a recipient

Group coaching is live online on a bi-monthly schedule with directed video study at your own pace prior to the lesson (additional personalized coaching is also available).

Students planning to enter the International Harp Therapy Program are now required to submit the first 3 Creative Harping lessons along with their application.

Students may prepare on their own or sign up for the PREP Program coaching. This coaching is also available to those who want to further their harp skills who are not taking the program.

We will be delving deeply into the Creative Harping progressive series. There is no time limit for our Prep Program as you prepare for the Academic Program.

The first lesson is FREE!
